Compassionate Communities

Connect to end sexual assault.
Connect to end sexual assault and rape.
Compassionate Communities work together to create a future free of violence. By promoting connectedness, equality, accountability and respect, we can create compassionate communities and end sexual assault and rape.

Connect — One in two women and girls will experience sexual assault or rape in their lifetime and one in three girls will be sexually assaulted by the time she reaches the age of eighteen. When women and girls are raped, it hurts all of us.

  Rise up — Speak out against all forms of injustice. Support all women and girls, men and boys who have been impacted by rape or sexual assault regardless of race, age, income, sexuality, and citizenship status.

Equality — Equality fosters healthy environments and compassionate communities. Everyone has a role in promoting equality and ending sexual assault!

  Rise up — Stand up for women and girls when they are put down, pushed aside, or harmed in any way. Learn how every act of inequality contributes to sexual assault.

Accountability — We need compassion and accountability at all levels of society to end rape and sexual assault.

  Rise up — Encourage positive, non-violent expressions of manhood that hold offenders accountable for their behavior. Promote respect and compassion for anyone who has been raped or sexually abused.

Respect — Change can start today, and it starts with you!

  Rise up — Speak up when women and girls are objectified. Understand how media messages shape our culture and society. Use your purchase power to support only products and businesses that respect women and girls. Be a positive role model to young men and women.
