Officers went into the home, where they found evidence of a struggle, including flour spilled on the kitchen floor and fingernails belonging to Michelle Booth. They found the body of 4-year-old Salor on a landing leading to an upstairs loft, where they subsequently found Michelle's body. At one point during the chase, he went into the town of Rexburg and attempted to hide out on the BYU-Idaho campus, where he shot a student in the leg. Briggs and Garcia were engaged for three months when Garcia broke it off. Meister left his own residence at 10pm the night of the shooting, went to Hart's home and shot her when she answered the door. He fled the scene and disposed of the gun in a garbage can and later discarded his clothes and shoes. Police were able, however, to match shoe prints at the scene of the crime and along Highway 95 to Meister after the individual who sold him the gun told police what type of shoe he had been wearing when he bought it. Linderman initially did not admit to any involvement in Hart's death, but investigators believed he wanted to end their relationship and feared the reaction from Hart and her father.
