

HUMAN TRAFFICKING WEBINAR

Please join us for a webinar on human trafficking presented by Elena Dineen is a Staff Attorney for Programs at Futures Without Violence

Learning Objectives:

1. Recognize similarities and intersections between labor trafficking, human trafficking, sexual assault, and domestic violence;
2. Develop strategies to address labor trafficking within your community.

Training Overview:

Discuss the intersection of labor trafficking and human trafficking on Latinx families. Facilitate a discussion about the barriers folks are facing to increase their capacity to address and serve survivors of labor trafficking and human trafficking.

Presenter's Bio:

Elena Dineen is a Staff Attorney for Programs at Futures Without Violence. At FUTURES, her work focuses on the workplace impacts of domestic and sexual violence, building collaborative responses to human trafficking, and issues related to the intersection between gender-based violence and immigration. Prior to joining FUTURES, Ms. Dineen was a Directing Attorney at the Salinas office of California Rural Legal Assistance, where she represented low-wage workers and their families in employment, education, housing, unemployment insurance benefits and immigration cases and litigation.
