

Ti Novitawi Kocheukaakwe*

Virtual Conference Honoring Missing & Murdered Indigenous People

Throughout October, 2020

Featuring Sarah Deer

Author of “The Beginning and End of Rape”
On October 6th, 11:00AM-1:00PM

**Going back toward home (in Bannock Indigenous language)*

 Idaho Coalition

Idaho Coalition
Against Sexual &
Domestic Violence
Engaging Voices, Creating Change

Ti Novitawi Kocheukaakwe* Virtual Conference Honoring Missing & Murdered Indigenous People

All people are sacred and worthy of protection, justice, and wellness. The issue of Missing & Murdered Indigenous People should receive adequate response and prevention measures, and Idaho is taking steps toward that end. As we acknowledge this crisis and the changes urgently needed to save lives, and respond to this reality we begin the process of removing barriers to the safety of Native communities by strengthening the ability of Indigenous nations to protect mxn, womxn, and children.

During October, the Idaho Coalition will host Ti Novitawi Kocheukaakwe Virtual Conference Honoring Missing & Murdered Indigenous People. Each presentation will be delivered virtually via Zoom.

Featuring Sarah Deer, Author of “The Beginning and End of Rape” On October 6th, 11:00AM-1:00PM

We will announce additional speakers from Indigenous communities across the country whose powerful voices and insight and renown in the movement to end violence against Native folks.

Registration opens August 1st on www.engagingvoices.org

**Going back toward home (in Bannock Indigenous language)*

1402 W. Grove Street, Boise, Idaho 83702

Non Profit
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit No. 679
Boise, Idaho